FAMED KCRW DJ RAUL CAMPOS TO SPIN AT PASADENA ART MARKET

Pasadena, Calif. (March 2008) -- Famed KCRW DJ Raul Campos will be spinning deep exotic rhythms and setting the mood from 12 noon to 4:00 P.M. at the Pasadena Art Market on Sunday, March 16 in the One Colorado Courtyard. This outdoor event is Pasadena's most popular fine arts market, with an exclusive focus on work by students, faculty and alumni from Art Center College of Design and Pasadena City College. The market runs from 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. and is free and open to the public.

Now in its fifth year, the Pasadena Art Market attracts thousands and is a great opportunity to find innovative productions by emerging artists, illustrators, ceramicists, and the next generation of environmental and industrial designers experimenting with different media. And, all purchases benefit 100% the artists and students directly. The art market occurs in the pedestrian alleys and Courtyard at One Colorado.

Raul Campos hosts a week-nightly show on KCRW 89.9 FM and kcrw.com, the station at the heart of L.A.'s music scene, as well as Saturday night's mega-mixes for Power Tools on Power 106 FM, the longest running underground mix show in Los Angeles. Campos is also in great demand as a club DJ and has been billed at some of L.A.'s biggest parties with many of the worlds top DJs including Paul Oakenfold, Ron Trent, Static Revenger, Armand Van Helden and Mark Farina.

Pasadena Art Market is part of Pasadena Art Weekend, March 14, 15, 16, 2008. For more information, please go to www.pasadenaartweekend.com or call 800.307.7977.
